

Xeno 4

Xeno Manager. A perfect combination between functionality and design.

Xeno Manager is the executive desk with the right balance between modern design and furniture of representation. A collection with essential and unmistakable shapes. Two versions are available: Xeno Manager with classic wooden panel sides and the one with stylish oblique aluminum legs, also available in Altius. Two ways to interpret the office of the manager today.

The importance of being able to develop meeting tables with different dimensions allows to realize solutions for each meeting space and need.
